The Schwartz Property located at 4905 East Joppa Road, Perry Hall, Baltimore County, Maryland is not located within a historic district nor is it individually eligible for listing on the Maryland Register of Historic Properties.

The property consists of four structures: the principal dwelling, a storage shed, a double shed, and a block garage. According to the available information, the principal dwelling was constructed in 1877. The principal dwelling is a t-form, two stories in height. The Main block is two bays wide, and two bays deep. The rear addition is two stories in height, one bay wide and two bays deep. The house has been altered extensively, there are few remaining original windows, the house is partially covered in styrofoam insulation and artificial siding. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles, there is a chimney on the rear addition. On both sides of the rear addition is a shed roof porch. The house has been vandalized. The storage shed has vertical board and batten siding and a cedar shake roof. The double sheds have vertical board and batten siding and asphalt on cedar shakes. The four-bay cement block garage has a corrugated metal roof.

This property is not known to have any associations with persons or events significant to our past and is thus not eligible under Criteria B or A. It lacks the architectural distinctiveness to qualify it for listing under Criterion C.
